

I am strongly opposed to the Consumer Bankers Association petition to allow telemarketing calls in Indiana through the so-called established business relationship exemption. I cannot express just how strongly I am opposed to this. Please do not approve their petition.